Dear OIBF Youth Scholarship Applicants and Families,

Thank you for your interest in applying for an OIBF Mike Clark Memorial Youth Music Scholarship! As OIBF's Youth Scholarship Chair I am honored to coordinate this exciting, unique, and important aspect of OIBF's mission. OIBF founder and figure head Byron Berline, along with a number of other passionate individuals in various roles envisioned an event that would not only bring quality traditional music to the region during the annual festival, but would also provide an avenue through which Bluegrass and traditional music forms could be supported and encouraged for years to come.

I would encourage you to take this application process seriously and be diligent in your review of the process and requirements. I am excited to review your application and look forward to the possibility of an OIBF Youth Scholarship being part of your musical journey!

Sincerely,

Andrew Hunt
